

Introduction	Tracking Vehicle application allowing dealers to track, loans and transfer vehicles.
Requirements	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The system shall enable or disable dealerships as needed. • The system shall transfer vehicles between dealerships while maintaining inventory details. • The system shall track vehicles that are loaned out and unavailable for sale. • The system shall ensure that sports cars cannot be rented. • The system shall save dealership and vehicle data to ensure continuity after program restarts. • The system shall reload stored data accurately upon application launch. • The system shall read vehicle data from XML files. • The system shall handle errors and malformed XML inputs gracefully. • The system shall include dealer names when importing vehicle data. • The system shall store dealership and vehicle data in JSON format. • The system shall retrieve dealership data from stored JSON files. • The system shall maintain vehicle details and history during transfers. • The system shall provide a user-friendly, click-based interface. • The system shall enable easy navigation and interaction with dealership and vehicle data. • The system shall test JSON/XML import processes for accuracy.